

Q-Kolleg Conference, 11th July 2017

Public Spaces of the Roman Empire

Collection of the Winckelmann-Institut, room 3098, 10:00 am to 19:00 pm with an introduction by Simone Mulattieri and Jessica Bartz

Block I - 10:00 am to 12:30 pm

Bronze- and Iron Age Graves on the Roman Forum (1000-750 B. C.)

Nina Horn-Wittkuhn

Memory and the City. Small Sanctuaries on the Roman Forum

Nicole Neuenfeld (Remembering the beginning. The so-called Umbilicus Urbis Romae)

Alessio Galli (Lacus Curtius)

Ermanno Roberti (Lacus Iuturnae)

Atrium Libertatis. Reconstructing the History of an Institutional Building from the Republic to the Empire

Ambra Mortellaro

Mia Theobald

Block II - 13:30 pm to 15:30 pm

„[...] The Forum, where justice is administered, the assemblies of the people held, and other civil matters transacted, [...] surrounded [by] shops and porticos.“

Dionysius Halicarnassensis 3.67.4

Tabernae: Reconstructing Daily Life on the Roman Forum

Valentina Colagrossi

Serena De Cunto

Stéphanie F. Lacombe

Lea Thomas

The Schola Xanthi within the Context of Scholae and Public Spaces in Rome

Max Peers

Chiara Tesserin

Block III - 16:00 pm to 18:00 pm

Honorary Statues during the Mid and Late Republic in the Forum Romanum: from the Fidenae ambassadors to Sulla

Azzurra Marina Pennini

Sieg und Ehre. Repräsentation auf dem Forum Romanum in der Kaiserzeit

Lilith Kappelmann

Daily Life and Cityscape. The Role of Early Christian Churches at the Forum Romanum

Jessica Follega

Luise Mörke

Ilya Poskonin

Final session „Fish bowl“: What was a public space during the Roman Empire? - 18:00 pm to 19:00 pm

